

Mortal Sin vs Venial Sin Sorting Activity

Cut apart each of the cards. Place the Mortal Sin and Venial Sin cards at the top. Mix up the rest of the cards. Place the cards under the correct label. Discuss with someone why you placed each card in a category.

Mortal Sin A mortal sin is serious in nature, committed in full knowledge of what you are doing, and is deliberate choice.	Venial Sin A Venial sin is less serious in nature, is committed without full knowledge of what you are doing, and it isn't always a deliberate choice.
Killing	Weakens your relationship with God
Adultery	Disobeying your parents
Worshipping false gods	Disobeying your teacher
Hatred towards another person	Lying
You do something that you know is seriously wrong, but you do it anyway	Cheating
Sins that cause your relationship with Christ to be broken	Being lazy