

Fourth Grade: Lesson 13

The Beatitudes

Lesson Objective:

These outcomes provide the opportunity to explore the Beatitudes in depth. Children should be invited to break open the Scriptures on the Beatitudes as well as assess the values of our culture to explore the way in which our society embraces or does not embrace the Beatitudes.

Learning Outcomes:

- Discuss how the Beatitudes are guidelines for a moral life (Matt 5-7; CCC 1965-1972, 1723-1724).
- Read the scripture passages containing the Beatitudes (Matt 5:1-12; Luke 6:20-23).
- Compare and contrast the Beatitudes and the values of modern-day society.

Materials Needed:

- Prayer space item, Bibles, pencils, crayons
- Copies needed: Beatitudes coloring sheet (optional), Lectio Divina printable guide (select one), 10 Commandments Cootie Catcher, Posterboard to make a class collage or the individual sheet of paper provided in the lesson, magazines/newspapers/catalogs that can be cut up for the collage (pictures that represent the Beatitudes and 10 Commandments).

As Students Enter Class:

- Student may enjoy coloring the sheet below while waiting for class to begin:

Beatitudes Coloring Sheet

Beginning of Class:

- Gather around your prayer space and model a prayer of thanksgiving, thanking God for something you appreciate in your life; provide an opportunity for all students to state their own prayer of thanksgiving.

	The Similes of Salt and Light. * 13 "You are the salt of the earth. But if salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned? It is no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot. * 14You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. 15Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house. 16Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father.
Beatitudes Explained	This video is 2:07 in length. Highlights: A priest narrates. The Beatitudes are the identity card of Christians. Blessed means happy and flourishing. What attitudes can we adopt from the Beatitudes? Be-attitude what does it mean to be a good Christian, to be a holy person, to be happy. The Beatitudes can help us with these thoughts and actions. Please refer to the page at the end of this lesson for a summary of what each line means.
The Beatitudes Song	This Christine in Action Video is 1:32 in length. The words appear while she sings.
Memorize the Beatitudes with Hand Motions	This video is 1:24 in length. A priest states all 8 Beatitudes, while using hand motions that will help with memorization. You may want to play this 2-3 times, depending on your student engagement. 😊
Guided Meditation on the Beatitudes	This video is 8:19 in length. It is very well done. It is not narrated, so students will need to read the words on the screen.

	It goes through each Beatitude, along with wonderful age-appropriate explanations of what each Beatitude means. Beautiful pictures will also help students with comprehension. Consider stopping at any time to discuss or ask questions. Also, encourage your students to raise their hands during the video if they want to ask a question or share something.
Intro into the Activities	This video is 1:31 in length. You may want to play the first 40 seconds for your students, since Carla reviews important information about how following the 10 Commandments and Beatitudes help us live holy lives and follow Jesus' plan for our lives.
An Introduction to Lectio Divina Please note: You will see 4 steps for Lectio Divina. However, some have added a fifth step, which is action.	This video is 2:45 in length. A young man narrates the video. Students are encouraged to all have a Bible and follow along to learn the 5 steps of Lectio Divina. Luke 17:5-6 are the verses that are focused on throughout this video.

What are the Beatitudes teaching us? *

BEATITUDE	SIMPLE TERMS
Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of God.	Happy is the person who realizes that they need Jesus as a Savior, because we cannot save ourselves. Once we realize that we need God to help us, instead of trying to handle it on our own, we will be taken care of. We will also have the honor of having a place in Heaven.
Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.	If you are sad because of sad or bad things that have happened, you can still be content because Jesus will comfort you.
Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the Earth.	Happy is the person who is gentle and can control their emotions and actions, for they will be rewarded.
Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.	Happy are the people who want to do right and know God more than anything else, for God will give them what they need. This beatitude is not about the literal meaning of being hungry or thirsty.
Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.	Happy are the people who are kind and forgiving to other people, for they will be shown kindness and forgiveness, too.
Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.	It is easy for everyone to understand doing the right thing on the outside for others to see, but what Jesus is taking about here is changing the heart, the way we think and feel, on the inside. When we are doing the right things and for the right reasons, with a pure heart/intention, then we will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.	Happy are the people who work to make peace and doing good for others. We need to stand up for peace and for what is right. By doing Jesus says we will be rewarded with the title, 'child of God.'
Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.	People who are hurt, suffer, or are treated badly because they have done right can be happy knowing they will have the kingdom of Heaven to look forward to.
Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you, and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me. Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.	You can be happy when people make fun of you, hurt you, or say things that are mean and wrong against you, because of your faith and love of Jesus. Be excited and happy because just like the other heroes of the Bible, your reward is going to be great when you get to Heaven.
