

Baptism Celebration Decoration, Cupcake Toppers, etc.

When celebrating a new Baptism, a Baptism Anniversary, or just learning about Our Lord's Baptism, these are perfect for all kinds of uses!

The "dove in a water drop" images are perfect for many occasions! Just print the PDF out, cut out the images, and tape them to strips of ribbon to make decorations. Or you can tape them to the top half of toothpicks to create cupcake toppers. They can be stuck in the tops of cheese cubes or sandwiches, too. It's so easy!

For best results I recommend printing these onto photo paper or stock paper.

Celebrating Baptism Anniversaries!

Here at our house we celebrate baptism anniversaries like birthdays - but without the gifts. After all, the day we were "born" into God's family is a VERY important day!

When we celebrate the kids' Baptism Anniversaries, we don't have lit candles on a cake like you would on a birthday cake. Instead we have the kids light a votive candle at Church.

It's a simple family tradition, but if our children's Baptism Anniversaries don't fall on a Sunday, we just have the child light the candle on the Sunday closest to the Baptism Anniversary or go to daily Mass on that special day so they can light the candle.

We also have a small party with cupcakes! That's where these little Dove and Water images come in handy!

Baptism Cupcake Toppers

Cut out these dove/water-drop images and tape the top-half of a toothpick to the back of each of them. Then stick them in the tops of cupcakes, cheese cubes, sandwiches, etc. Blue icing or sugar sprinkles can also add a nice touch to the cupcakes.
